Help with 'memories'

SONOMA Mine Management has presented $2000 to the Collinsville Scottville Historical Society for their Book of Memories project.

The project will document stories of Collinsville's early years from older residents.

The donation is part of $70,963 granted to Collinsville community organisations in the first round of the Sonoma Community Grants program.

Applications for the next round of the Sonoma Coal Community Spirit Grants close on the March 31.
